

2019 Show and Sale Report

Following a few unsettled weeks of incredibly inclement weather, the sun once again showered down and all roads of the Llanwenog fraternity lead Llanybydder Mart for the 60th Annual Show and Sale of the Llanwenog Sheep Society.

Year upon year the society attracts new buyers to the sale with people coming from near and far, to purchase this wonderful breed. As in previous years the number of youngsters and new members attending the sale to learn and buy quality animals is a reassurance to the Society.

The Society's President had the challenging task of judging the Young Handlers section, following on from last year's success, Master Owen Williams of the Pentre Flock once again took the Bradden Cup for best overall Young Handler. Winner of the senior young handler class was the popular Dewi Evans of the Penrherber Flock. Miss Carys Evans of the Nant Sarah Flock showed her dedication to the breed by spending the Summer school holidays working, which enabled her to purchase a few ewes for her upcoming flock.

Mr Les Jenkins of the Beiligwyn Flock had the arduous task of judging the Ram and Lamb Ram classes, which took place prior to the commencement of the sale. Winner of the Best Ram 2 year old and over was Mr and Mrs Morgans of the Glwydwern Flock, this ram went on to sell for £340. Top price of the sale was purchased by Mr Smart from Aberdare who paid the grand sum of £660.00 for the aged ram which was presented by the Pengelli Flock.

A total of 15 Yearling Rams was presented before Les, the winner and taking the Aysford Perpetual Challenge Cup for overall male champion was awarded to Huw Evans of the Alltgoch flock, this upstanding youngster went on to achieve £500.

Entries for the ram lamb class was tremendous with 21 coming forward, taking the top spot was again from the Glwydwern Flock of Mr and Mrs Morgans, this exceptionally turned out lamb produced the top price ram lamb of £510 well above the average of £268.33, and obviously took the judges fancy as he was the eventual buyer.

Mr Pete Ebbsworth of the Cae Main Flock had the laborious task of judging the Ewe and Ewe Lamb classes, winning the Cwmere Perpetual Challenge cup for the best pen of 5 or more ewes or ewe lambs was JI and JT Lloyd and Son of the Cletwr Flock. Following on from their success with their rams and winning the Maestroyddyn Cup for best pair of ewes or ewe lambs and achieve top price ewe lambs of £160 was Mr and Mrs Morgans of the Glwydwern Flock, again far exceeding the average of £81.60 for ewe lambs, the purchaser being Mark Williamson of the Kilgour Flock. The average for the ewes was £93.08 with Huw Evans, Alltgoch achieving top priced Ewes of £200.00 which sold to new member Ana Ireland.

Once again, the Society wishes to thank Evans Bros auctioneers for their continued support. Good luck to everyone with their purchases.
